African Disability Rights Yearbook 2020: Call for Papers

The African Disability Rights Yearbook (ADRY) is calling for papers for consideration for publication in Section A of the ADRY in 2020.

The ADRY publishes once a year with a focus on disability rights issues and developments of contemporary concern to persons with disabilities on the African continent.

The ADRY is published by the Pretoria University Law Press (PULP) and is published as a peer-reviewed open-access journal.

www.adry.up.ac.za

Centre for Human Rights
Faculty of Law, University of Pretoria
www.chr.up.ac.za

Articles for Section A of the ADRY - the subject of this Call - should be original and not under consideration for publication by another journal. An article should not exceed 10 000 words, including footnote references. When preparing articles for submission, contributors are advised to follow the guidelines which are available on the ADRY website under ‘Submissions’.

Manuscripts should be sent in electronic format to:
charles.ngwena@up.ac.za AND nkatha.murungi@up.ac.za copying innocentia.mgijima@up.ac.za.

An acknowledgment will be returned upon receipt of the submission. The deadline for submitting manuscripts is 30 March 2020. Inquiries relating to submissions can be sent to innocentia.mgijima@up.ac.za.